

Position:

- Technical Superintendent for Dry Bulk Fleet.

Responsibilities:

- Monitoring vessels' performance, fuel, lubricants consumption and quality.
- Monitoring statutory/class/safety certificates and scheduling renewal surveys.
- Monitoring PMS and spares inventory, orders and consumption with respect to budget.
- Providing technical support and visiting vessels frequently for condition assessment.
- Planning, executing and attending repairs, maintenance, services and drydocking.
- Working in a professional team environment within the Company's Technical Dept in Piraeus.

Required Qualifications:

- University Degree in Mechanical / Marine Engineering and/or Naval Architecture.
- 3~5 years previous office experience as Technical Superintendent for dry bulk cargo vessels.
- Proficiency in English, both written and verbal.
- PC literacy.
- Flexibility to travel.

Additional Qualifications to strengthen candidate position:

- New Building experience.
- Sailing experience.
- Audit / Vetting / RightShip inspection / PSC experience.
- Familiarity with Danaos PMS and technical cycle.
- Training on hull inspection, corrosion assessment and painting application.
- Training on MAN/Wartsila electronic engine.
- Training on risk assessment and incident investigation.
- Familiarity with upcoming DryBMS requirements.

Benefits:

- Attractive Salary, commensurate to seniority.
- Private Medical Insurance (Outpatient and Hospital) through NN Insurance , extended to family dependents .
- Stable and pleasant working environment aiming to work-life balance, within a most longstanding private company, always striving for business excellence.